Ancestry

Kelpie x Collie

Merlot came to the Creed family as a stray, after a speedy rescue from the middle of the road in Lyndoch, and a short stay at the pound, nobody claimed the gorgeous boy, so he came to Lyndoch to Live.

Merlot immediately became a Creed, and now has immersed himself into all aspects of the Creed lifestyle. He is much loved, and is a loyal family member.

Idiosyncrasies

This lad believes he is a lap dog, Size isn't something he is keenly aware of, as he lays all over his house mates, and occasionally taps away on the notebook computer!

Merlot is noted for poking his tongue out . . . . a lot! We take this as a sign of contentment, and it is certainly an endearing character!

He has a terrific launch technique for lounge, or bed.

Merlot manages to move between alert & running to dead asleep in moments. Once he is at rest, he is completely relaxed! Like a rag doll!

Key Role / Responsibilities

Monitoring everyone's every move. Especially Max, unless he's asleep of course!

Merlot is a live Electric Blanket, handy on cold evenings in the lounge, his house mates do vie for his attention for cuddles on certain occasions.

Affection is his key role, Merlot is a touchy/feely kind of character and likes to stay close to his friends. He brings a lot of love to all who know him! Cute is a common phrase used by his many admirers!
